

United Campaign

to Repeal the Anti Trade Union Laws

Press Release***

28 March 2008

United Campaign to stage a Regional Campaign Meeting in Hucknall, Nottinghamshire, 5 April 2008

The United Campaign to Repeal the Anti Trade Union Laws will be hosting a joint Campaign Meeting with Notts, Masfield and Nottingham TUC on the need for trade union freedom.

The meeting will feature speeches and discussion from some of the major trades unions General Secretaries including Billy Hayes from the CWU and Brian Caton of the POA.

The meeting will be chaired by John Hendy QC, National Secretary of the United Campaign and Chair of the Institute of Employment Rights and will feature input from Roger Mckenzie the Regional Secretary of Midlands TUC, Robert Monks the General Secretary of URTU, Joe Marino the General Secretary of BFAWU, Jerry Bartlett the Deputy General Secretary of NASUWT, Ian Lavery the President of NUM, Tosh McDonald of ASLEF, Keith Stanley Notts NUM General Secretary and National Vice President and Steve Cottingham of OH Parsons.

All supporters are invited to attend this whole-day meeting, questions and comments will be taken and the United Campaign encourages any who are interested in the future of the movement to be present on the day.

The meeting will be held at the John Godber Centre on Saturday the 5 April 2008 from 10.00 am until 4.00 pm. The event will be followed by the Linby Colliery social in the evening to mark the twentieth anniversary of the closure of the pit.

Further details such as directions, speakers and publicity materials are available on our website at www.unitedcampaign.org.uk. For more information contact John Usher, United Campaign Director on 07989 851 446.